

Monjasa Oil & Shipping Trainee, Singapore

Deadline:
10-02-2026

Office:
Singapore, Singapore

Would you like a career that takes you on an international adventure in the oil and shipping industry and where you will get firsthand experience from day one? Do you want to contribute to facilitating the movement of the world's fleet and advancing global trade?

What does it mean to be a Trainee with us?

As a Monjasa Oil & Shipping Trainee (MOST), you become part of a global two-year programme that offers valuable insights into how we fuel global trade and take responsibility in the future of shipping. You will be able to apply your learning and contribute to the performance of the team right away, as a Trader within Monjasa's core business.

You will be part of global rotations (2 x 1.5 months) across our offices such as Singapore, China, Japan, Greece, Dubai, Denmark, New York or Panama. This will give you first-hand experiences and understanding of different business contexts and cultures.

Your knowledge of our business areas will gradually develop day by day. You will gain further shipping knowledge through the Danish Shipping Education with the Danish Shipping Academy, and our own Monjasa Academy will take you through plenty of internal training as well.

In every office, you can expect an inclusive environment that oozes of family spirit and a multi-cultural vibe, and we also enjoy spending time together outside working hours. This will give you a feeling of being home away from home when you are on your rotations.

You will start in your home office on August 2026 and shortly after the adventure is kicked off in Denmark with a mix of school, teambuilding activities, internal education, and global onboarding programme.

Your daily tasks

- Support our Trading floor in all aspects of the Trader role
- Research on potential customers and markets
- Monitor oil prices and communicate to relevant stakeholders
- Support the sourcing team with purchasing of fuel

What can you contribute with?

- You are forthcoming, curious and persevering
- You reflect yourself in our core values of Respect,
- Ambition, Curiosity and Smile & Joy
- You have a relevant educational background, such as a Bachelor's degree, college education or similar, with extracurricular experiences from travel, work, living abroad or similar

Application

You are free to apply to several Monjasa locations, however we would like to receive your application only once, and you will get the opportunity to tick-off your additional locations in the application form.

After the application deadline, we will select a number of candidates to invite for a recruitment event at our Singapore office located at Raffles Place on 4 March 2026. After the event, we will invite the candidates with the best fit for a personal interview on 5,6 and 10 March 2026. If you have shown interest in more than one location, you will be invited to the event closest to your home.
